

FINANCIAL ATTITUDES SURVEY FOR TWO

A = Agree D = Disagree

- _____ 1. I plan to buy a new car at least once every three years.
- _____ 2. It's OK to borrow money from our relative.
- _____ 3. I'd rather spend $100 on paint and supplies for our living room than on a new outfit.
- _____ 4. It is important to go away for a vacation every year.
- _____ 5. I believe in joint checking and saving accounts.
- _____ 6. We should not spend more on Christmas gifts than what we make in a week.
- _____ 7. I want my children to attend private school.
- _____ 8. Life insurance in the amount of five times our annual income is an absolute must.
- _____ 9. All purchases over $100 should be discussed before the purchase.
- _____ 10. I'd rather spend $20 for a new book than for a meal out.
- _____ 11. The spouse who makes more money should have a greater say in spending it.
- _____ 12. Even if it means cutting back on our lifestyle, it is important for one of us to be at home while our children are growing up.
- _____ 13. If we must economize, I'd rather cut back on entertainment than on clothes.
- _____ 14. Giving to the church and/or other charities should be one of our first financial priorities.
- _____ 15. Both spouses should be covered by life insurance.
- _____ 16. I'd be willing to cut back drastically on our lifestyle for four to six years so my spouse can return to school or establish his or her own business.
- _____ 17. Each spouse should be able to spend some money without having to account for it.
- _____ 18. Packing a lunch and bringing it from home is better than the expense of buying lunch out.
- _____ 19. It's important for us to buy a house before we have children.
- _____ 20. It's important to have a detailed budget and stick to it.