

Benefits of Participating in a Marriage Encounter Weekend

On a Marriage Encounter United Methodist weekend you will learn:

- How you can tell the difference between a thought or judgment and a feeling and how this can prevent misunderstandings and arguments.
- How you can share any feeling in a safe, non-threatening way.
- How you and your spouse can see something from entirely different viewpoints and still grow closer together.
- The simple yet liberating truth about our personality styles.
- The one basic choice everyone can make that will improve every aspect of our lives.
- How you can recognize and avoid the subtle trap that brings resignation and loneliness to many marriages.
- The simple activity that can transform your marriage.
- How you can share on difficult topics effectively and lovingly.
- How an ordinary marriage can become an extraordinary marriage.
- How you can experience a special closeness that most couples never dream possible
- The one basic truth that can have a positive impact on your marriage for the rest of your life.
- How you can create special time for each other on a daily basis.
- And much more....

Would you like to join the thousands of couples who on a daily basis are making good marriage into great marriages by applying what they have learned as a result of participating in a Marriage Encounter weekend?
