QUESTIONS TO KEEP ASKING

During the 1995 WWME Convention, Father Chuck Gallagher, SJ, considered the founder of Worldwide Marriage Encounter, proposed that all married couples answer and re-answer these questions over a year's time. He went so far as to say that we shouldn't just limit ourselves to the dialogue format in addressing these questions: We need to problem solve, come to couple decisions, argue about (if necessary) these topics:

1. What do I most owe you, my beloved?

2. What grudges do I hold (regarding you)?

3. What makes it hardest for you to live with me?

4. Where do I trust others more than I trust you?

5. What would you most like me to change?

6. Where do I tiptoe around you?

7. When are we most likely to fight and what about? (Is this ever going to change?)

8. What most turns the two of us "on" to each other sexually? How much do we use these "turn ons"?

9. How would our children describe me as a husband or wife, especially to our grandchildren?

10. What tricks do I use to get my way?

11. Who controls the mood in the house? The conversation? The bed?

12. Where do I most take you for granted?

13. Where do I feel superior to you?

14. What will you say about him or her at their funeral? What will you miss the most?

SCRIPTURE DIALOGUE

“In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God.” (John 1:1). This Scripture passage tells us that the Word IS God. In our Bible, we have God present in a special way. We like to think of Scripture as God’s love letters... written to us and for us... to reveal Jesus and ourselves in relationship with Him. The books of the Bible are our books. We can respond to love letters, and our responses, our feelings, are neither right nor wrong. Scripture dialogue is a tool — a means of responding to the love letters of our Father. The basics of Scripture dialogue are:

- 1st Select a passage from Scripture that is meaningful to you as a couple.
- 2nd Read enough before and after that particular passage to be able to “place” your passage as far as chronological sequence in the events of Jesus’ life (or of events before or after Christ) and as far as the physical setting.
- 3rd With one another, try to set the scene - from the outside in.
 - a. physical setting, time of day, indoors, outdoors
 - b. emotional climate of the passage the atmosphere
 - c. zero in on Jesus (or God), the characters, and yourself -Where are you in this scene? What do you see? What do you hear? Who or what do you identify with?
- 4th Re-read your particular passage.
- 5th Write your love letter immediately. The basic question for Scripture dialogue is, “What are my feelings hearing Jesus say these words to us as a couple?” Focus on your feelings. How do I feel? How do I feel about my spouse? Our relationship? How do I feel about Jesus? What feelings has He stirred up in me? Feel the atmosphere we have brought alive, and respond to it.
- 6th Follow dialogue technique for writing, exchange, dialogue and select. Read each other’s letters twice. In your dialogue, focus on responding to one another’s love letter.

7th Discussion later could be focused on “What did His words mean to me?”, or how His words make me think about our life, and how I would like to live them, how His words affect my attitudes with you and with Him. Don’t worry about being right. You can start in your prayer, drawing on the graces and the love our Lord has promised us - to strengthen us when we are afraid, to give us courage to make the decisions we make in opening ourselves up to one another.

None of these are hard and fast rules you have to follow — these are just ideas of how others have had meaningful Scripture dialogue times.

- 1. John 15:16, “It was not you who chose me, but I who chose you and appointed you to go and bear fruit that will remain, so that whatever you ask the Father in my name he may give you.”
- 2. John 14:23: Jesus answered and said to him, “Whoever loves me will keep my word and my Father will love him, and we will come to him and make our dwelling with him.”
- 3. Matthew 6: 5-8: “When you pray, do not be like the hypocrites, who love to stand and pray in the synagogues and on street corners so that others may see them. Amen, I say to you, they have received their reward. But when you pray go to your inner room, close the door, and pray to your Father in secret. And your Father who sees in secret will repay you. In praying, do not babble like the pagans, who think that they will be heard because of their many words. Do not be like them. Your Father knows what you need before you ask him.”

SCRIPTURE DIALOGUE cont’d

- 4. Matthew 5: 14, 15: You are the light of the world. A city set on a mountain cannot be hidden. Nor do they light a lamp and then put it under a bushel basket; it is set on a lampstand, where it gives light to all in the house.
- 5. Matthew 13: 14,15: “Isaiah’s prophecy is fulfilled in them, which says: ‘You shall indeed hear but not understand, you shall indeed look but never see. Gross is the heart of this people, they will hardly hear with their ears, they have closed their eyes, lest they see with their eyes and hear with their ears and understand with their heart and be converted and I heal them.’”
- 6. Matthew 7:22-23: “The lamp of the body is the eye. If your eye is sound, your whole body will be filled with light; but if your eye is bad, your whole body will be in darkness. And if the light in you is darkness, how great will the darkness be.”
- 7. 1 Samuel 3:7-10: At that time Samuel was not familiar with the Lord, because the Lord had not revealed anything to him as yet. The Lord called Samuel again, for the third time. Getting up and going to Eli, he said, “Here I am. You called me.” Then Eli understood that the Lord was calling the youth. So he said to Samuel, “Go to sleep, and if you are called, reply, ‘Speak, Lord, for your servant is listening.’” When Samuel went to sleep in his place, the Lord came and revealed his presence, calling out as before, “Samuel, Samuel!” Samuel answered, “Speak, for your servant is listening.”
- 8. Matthew 18:19-20: “Again, [amen,] I say to you, if two of you agree on earth about anything for which they are to pray, it shall be granted to them by my heavenly Father. For where two or three are gathered together in my name, there am I in the midst of them.”
- 9. Matthew 10:32: “Everyone who acknowledges me before others I will acknowledge before my heavenly Father.”
- 10. John 15:5: “I am the vine, you are the branches. Whoever remains in me and I in him will bear much fruit, because without me you can do nothing.”
- 11. John 15:16-17: “It was not you who chose me, but I who chose you and appointed you to go and bear fruit that will remain, so that whatever you ask the Father in my name he may give you. This I command you: love one another.”

12. Matthew 17:19-21: Then the disciples approached Jesus in private and said, “Why could we not drive it out?” He said to them, “Because of your little faith. Amen, I say to you, if you have faith the size of a mustard seed, you will say to this mountain, ‘Move from here to there,’ and it will move. Nothing will be impossible for you.”
