Your ad wasn't approved because it uses too much text in its image or video thumbnail, which doesn't follow Facebook's Advertising Policies. Ad images or video thumbnails aren't allowed to include more than 20% text. You'll still be charged for any impressions or clicks your ad received before it was disapproved.

You may upload your ad image to see why it is considered 20% text, or visit the Help Center to learn more.

If you've read the policies in the Help Center and think your ad follows the rules and should have been approved, please let us know.
